In Our Prayers

Please remember Ray and Ellen Schram as they make their way home this weekend from Texas. Pray for strength for Ray and safe travels for both of them.

Please remember our nation as we face something none of us have ever gone through before. Pray for patience for those who are isolated at home. Remember, a simple phone call can mean so much to those that need company. The Lord has said, "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land." Pray for healing for our world.
