Words of Thanks

A sincere thank you from our families to all who said a kind word, a prayer, sent a message or a card in remembrance of our father, grandfather and brother. We are humbly blessed to be part of this caring church family.

~~Dennis and Dar Jurgens

~~Derek and Megan Ackerman, family

~~Harold and Sheila Van Der Sloot, family

Thank you so much to the congregational care group for lining up, cooking and delivering meals to our family while we were navigating life with Israel's feeding tube, appointments, etc. We can update that Israel still has his feeding tube but is now able to eat orally so that is a huge answer to prayers! It was quite a journey trying to navigate not cooking/eating around him when he was unable to do so, so having these meals prepared took away a lot of added stress in planning meals and eating away from him. Not only did you ladies (and men) make and deliver meals for our family, you did so with the utmost sensitivity to our unique situation of not wanting the food to be around Israel. We would continue to ask for your prayers as Israel continues with various treatments and then upcoming testing and appointments at the Mayo clinic.

~~The Joseph Family
