Hello First Reformed Church,

What a way to end this nearly yearlong winter huh? With a tornado warning and an hour of wind and rain. It is always scary but also amazing to watch storms when they take place. Does anyone else just stand by a window or stand out on a deck and just watch a storm while it is taking place? Of course, you want to stay safe but at a safe distance, do you watch the storm? I love sitting and watching storms while they are happening. Wednesday's tornado warning was a real nail biter. I walked outside while I was at the church waiting for students to show up for our senior appreciation night and I watched the grey clouds cover the sun and made Sibley look like a movie out of the apocalypse. Seeing the insane amounts of rain furiously falling from the sky and flooding our parking lot and giving my car a nice wash. With a few moments of light that would come from the lightening and then hearing the roaring thunder that would shake the ground that I was standing on. It was really something to witness. Now before anyone thinks that I am crazy or that I was not safe let me explain why I did that.

I was looking out and the most amazing thing happened, it just stopped. The rain stopped falling the clouds opened up and the sun pierced through the grey clouds just enough to give us light again. It truly was beautiful. I love watching storms because it is a great reminder about who is in control. If you look back at the Bible and read about storms God was always the one who calmed it. Why? Because He is in full control of this world and everything that is in it. Do you feel like you are in a storm right now? I would encourage you to go to God who calms every storm who moves mountains and most importantly who created you.

One important way for you to get out of this storm is to surround yourself with fellow believers. First, come to Sunday Morning Worship. It is our duty and for our good to fellowship with the saints of the church and to pray for each other and to worship together. Second, get plugged into a small group outside of worship. One great study is taking place currently on Sunday nights in the Fellowship Hall. Finally, have a strong prayer and study life. You cannot grow if you don't talk to God and read His word that explains what we are to do in life. These are just some of the many things that we can do when we are caught in life's storms.

Youth group is coming to a close and this is sad, but it is just the closing of an old chapter and the beginning of a new one. We do have summer activities planned so please be on the lookout for those events. Thank you all so much for your continued support throughout the year and we hope that you were all blessed by the Youth Sunday service on Mother's Day! Thank you for taking the time to read this newsletter and if you ever have any questions please let me know. If you ever need a hug this big ole teddy bear has got one for you!

Blessings, Josh Lucas

Dad Jokes With Josh:

A farmer purchased a brand-new tractor. One year went by and the farmer did not pay any money for the tractor. The company who sold him the tractor contacted him and asked, "We have not received any money for the tractor. Why haven't you done this?" The farmer replied, "I was told by the salesman, this tractor would pay for itself in one year."

PRAYER JOURNAL

GETTING STARTED

New ideas are never entirely new. Even new inventions are built on the inventions of the past. That is equally true for the new ideas and new language that we are hearing —CRT, Gender Identity/fluidity, WOKE, BLM, progressivism, conservatism and so many more. In the next few months I am going to try to do two things. First explain the origin of many of these new ways of looking at the world, and then to outline God's view from scripture. My prayer is that we will become better informed, and better able to discuss ideas with those around us. No matter what the world says, we are responsible for being prepared to given an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope you have. (I Peter 3:15)

To get started we need to lay the foundation for the upcoming discussions. I am going to start where I always start—the five questions. Then I am going to take something written by Dr. Al Mohler and add a bit of my own.

THE FIVE QUESTIONS Every worldview tries to answer one or more of the following five questions. Keep these questions in mind as we look through these issues. I will compare the answers given by the people we are going to study with God's answers in Scripture.

- 1. Where did we come from? This is the question of origin of both the world and human beings.
- 2. Why are we here? This is the question of purpose or meaning.
- 3. What's gone wrong with the world? This is the question of evil, and an explanation of its source.
- 4. What can be done about it? This is the question of how to fix question #3.
- 5. Where do we go when we die? This question tries to addresses the fear of death.

GETTING STARTED

In 2006 journalist Gary Wolf selected four modern atheists that were supposed to end the damaging dominance of Christianity and other superstitions. They were Richard Dawkins, Sam Harris, Christopher Hitchens and Daniel Dennett. These men are well known for their outspoken criticism of Christianity and you can find "New Atheism" in Wikipedia if you want to read more about them. There is no doubt that they have had an influence on many people, particularly on college faculty.

But as I said above, new ideas are not entirely new. In his book Atheism Remix: A Christian Confronts the New Atheists, Dr. Albert Mohler Jr. selected four other giants of thought that laid the foundation for the modern atheists. He asserted that Charles Darwin, Fredrich Nietzsche, Karl Marx and Sigmund Freud had a greater influence on the men above and on our world in general. I read this book in 2006 and have consistently referred to it in my classes.

According to Robert Godfrey, a noted church historian, we have come to the end of the Christian era of dominance in the Western world. He selected June 26, 2015 as the date that marks this shift—the date the Supreme Court legalized same sex marriage in the Obergefell decision. That decision did not cause this shift, it is a marker of the shift that has occurred. I agree, and I do not think we are going to swing back to the way things used to be.

In these essays I am going to try to explain the essential impact of previous thinkers have had on our world. We need to think through how we are to answer these objections to Christianity if we are going to be salt and light in our age. Remember what Paul wrote in Romans 12:2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Bible study Verses

Psalm 91:4

He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler

Thoughts

Hiking is peaceful, long walks in God's creation. I feel closest to God when I'm hunting alone. His majestic creation is all around me--from the tiny flowers below to the towering trees above me. A rabbit scurries past, and there is a turkey with her new hatch, all in the high country of the forest.

Life is to be lived to the fullest: love of family, neighbors, and good friends reaching out to do God's work by serving. We are God's eyes, ears, and hands while we serve Him here on His Earth. As I walk through life, I feel God's shadow of protection all around me. Well, an elk is still walking free today, but there will be another day for hunting.

Action Point

As we read through the first chapter of Genesis, we witness everything God created. Genesis 1:31tells us, "Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day." (NKJV).

Everything that God made is indeed good and we should take the time to get out and enjoy His creation. Jesus did it from time to time to refresh Himself and to pray. We need to take the time to follow His example.

Sportsmen's Tip of the Day

Whenever you are out in the field, make sure to take care of God's creation. Always leave your camp cleaner than when you found it.

Working Together to Share the Love of Christ!

"And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly." (Rom.12:8b NLT)

We continue to be blessed with partners who help us to make a difference in the lives of our community. Last month a volunteer group from Community Reformed in Zeeland, MI helped to make a tremendous difference in the life of Betty. Betty is taking care of two sons, one with special needs and another undergoing cancer treatments. Betty's house was in need of major repairs. With the help of our staff and some donations from other partners, Betty's kitchen was reworked with new flooring, new cabinets. The group stepped up to help with other needs that were apparent. The pictures are of Betty, the group from Zeeland and of the work they did.

Betty and her sons were overwhelmed with the compassion that was shown to them. Betty stated, "We have never experienced such kindness before". Join us in giving thanks for our partners and pray for Betty and her family.

The campus is preparing for a busy summer. May 21, the Veterans Outreach committee will be hosting a fishing derby. The next week will see the start of our day camps. Join us in praying for safety for all, and that we will continue to show the love of Christ to all those that come thru the campus gates and in the greater community.

From the library--

Several years ago the book 23 MINUTES IN HELL by Bill Wiese was placed in the library. Now we have added 23 QUESTIONS ABOUT HELL also by Bill Wiese. In this book he provides answers to your most pressing questions on the topic. Based on the Bible and supported by Wiese's experiences, 23 QUESTIONS ABOUT HELL provides a fresh understanding about some of life's "whys" as they relate to hell and eternity. With the included DVD, you will also hear the author's firsthand account of his experience in hell and how it has changed his life and the lives of thousands of others.

Two other books have been added to our inventory. The first is TRACE OF DOUBT by DiAnn Mills. "Fifteen years ago, Shelby Pearce confessed to murdering her brother-in-law and was sent to prison. Now she's out on parole and looking for a fresh start in the small town of Valleysburg, Texas. But starting over won't be easy for an excon. FBI Special Agent Denton McClure was a rookie fresh out of Quantico when he was first assigned the Pearce case. He's always believed Shelby embezzled five hundred thousand dollars from her brother-in-law's account. So he's going under cover to befriend Shelby, track down the missing money, and finally crack this case. But as Denton gets closer to Shelby, he begins to have a trace of doubt about her guilt. Someone has Shelby in their crosshairs, it's up to Denton to stop them before they silence Shelby-and the truthforever."

ALWAYS LOOK TWICE by Elizabeth Goddard, is the second book of "Uncommon Justice" series. "At the advice of her therapist, Harper Reynolds has traded her job as a crime scene photographer for a more peaceful life taking photographs of the natural world. But her hopes for a life surrounded by the serenity of the outdoors are dashed when she inadvertently captures a murder being committed. She flees the scene in fear—and loses the camera. Former Green Beret Heath McKade, a reserve deputy in an understaffed county, has been called in to protect Harper, a childhood friend he is surprised to see back in the area. When Harper learns that the sheriff's department can't find any evidence of the murder she witnessed, she is determined to do what she can to see that justice is done. What neither Harper nor Heath could know is how many explosive secrets from the past will be exposed—or how deeply they will fall for each other.

Put visit the church library on your "to do" list.
