When We See the Harvest

A harvest of apples, a harvest of corn;
A harvest of plenty, an autumn adorned.
A harvest of pumpkins, a harvest of grain;
A harvest of bounty, and cool autumn rains.
A big harvest moon - way up in the sky;
A harvest of blessings that God has supplied.
Be grateful, be humble,
give thanks to the Lord;
He has showered His blessing
here in our world.
But have we been faithful,
and have we been true?
Have we put God first in all that we do?
A harvest that God sees is not food or crop;
Not pumpkins, or grain, not apples that drop.
But God sees the harvest of souls
needing Him;
A harvest of people who need saved
from their sin.
A harvest of souls and a harvest of love;
A harvest of mercy from our Father above.
When we see the harvest,
let's see through God's eyes;
And share with the nations
the life He supplies.

Hello First Reformed Church,

Wow! Look at how fast time has gone! It's already August and now pretty soon it will be September. Ah! I guess the biggest question on everyone's mind is, are you ready? Now of course this can mean a lot of different things. Are you ready for school to start back up again? Are you ready for harvest season? Or are you simply ready for the pumpkin spice and Christmas carol season? That term, "ready" it sure does pack a lot of meaning don't you think? Hannah constantly will ask me that question the night before a sermon Sunday or a youth group Wednesday night. I always respond with the similar answer, "I guess so." Now I don't want anyone to think that I am mediocre in my preparation for a sermon or that I don't prepare lessons in advance. My answer is because I can plan all day, but at the end of the day it is the Lord who is going to take care of everything. Now of course after my last sermon on Humility you understand what I mean by this and that it is good to plan, but it is by the ordination of the Lord that we accomplish anything. My encouragement for anyone who is anxious for the start of this new school year, whether it be a teacher, student, parent, farmer, etcetera, plan ahead but trust the Lord is going to take care of everything.

As we read from Proverbs 27:1, "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." We are not promised tomorrow so make today worth it. Don't focus on the things that will easily fade away but focus on the things that will last for all of eternity. Focus on your family and raise up your children in the ways of the Lord so that they will know and understand what it means to be a follower of Jesus. Count your blessings because I assume that people who have lost loved ones would do almost anything to have their loved one back. Which means now this question has a whole other meaning. Are you ready? Are you ready for your child to leave home to attend college? Meaning have you done the things you want to do with them while they are still living at home and have you had those meaningful conversations with them that you know you need to have with them? Are you ready for whatever the Lord may bring your way? Are you studying your Bible every day and praying to God every day to give you strength and encouragement through each day? These are very difficult questions, but it is possible for us to be prepared for this. You know how I know? 1 Peter 3:15 tells us that we need to "be ready to give a defense" for our faith and the hope that we have in Jesus Christ. Countless other passages that tell us to be ready for the battles that may come our way, and for when temptation comes our way. It's going to come not when we are one hundred percent expecting it, it comes when we least expect it. Like a thief in the night. Which is why Jesus constantly uses that metaphor because it is good to show us that we need to be on the lookout and be ready. Be ready brothers and sisters in the faith.

I am so excited to get youth group started again with all new curriculums and direction this year! It is going to be so amazing. Please note that we are kicking things off Wednesday September 14th! We are always looking for willing people to help with Wednesday night, especially during the Harvest and Planting season. If you are willing and able to help, please come and talk to me I would love to talk with you about it! Thank you all so much for reading this newsletter and as always if you need a hug this big ole teddy bear has one for you.

Blessings,
Josh Lucas

SHOEBOX STORIES

Olesea -and- the Markers

I was born and raised in a small village in Moldova. Our country was in severe financial instability after the fall of the Soviet Union. Everyone in our family needed to work to make ends meet. Besides his daily job, my dad and the rest of the family also worked long hours gathering and selling walnuts and working on government agricultural fields.

We tended a garden and kept domestic animals in order to have food on the table. Most of our food came from the garden. During the winter, we didn't buy extra food; we ate whatever we had stored. My six siblings and I had to wake up early before school to help feed the animals.

When we weren't working, we played outside with other kids. We made up our own games because we didn't have toys.

One day, when I was 5 years old, I was told that something exciting would happen at church the next day. I remember going to bed extra early, hoping that would make the day come sooner. When I woke up the next morning, I felt it was the most glorious day ever. I was so excited to receive my shoebox and couldn't wait to open it.

We opened our shoeboxes once we got home. We sat on the living room floor and took turns opening our shoeboxes. I dumped my whole box on the floor so I could see everything at once. The gifts were wonderful—we had items such as coloring books and soap.

The thing that stood out to me the most was a pack of colorful markers. I couldn't take my eyes off them. There were so many in the pack! I didn't know some of the colors existed. I was so excited I jumped up and started running around the room.

The markers my family had at home were dried out. We would dip them in water just to make them last a little longer. I always wished I could color and draw—the markers were exactly what I wanted. I could hardly wait to show my friends at school the new markers.

The day I received my shoebox I went from knowing about Jesus to actually knowing Him. I began a personal relationship with Jesus—one where He is my Best Friend—instead of just a powerful Man I'd heard about during Sunday School.

God used my shoebox to reassure me that He really loved me. It showed me that God does answer prayer. God became real and personal to me.

My family and I moved to the United States in 2003 and I now work as a nurse. I pack shoeboxes so I can bless other children. I want to help bring the same joy and happiness to other children that I experienced. I want children across the world to know Jesus.

Sportsmen's Devotional

Bible study Verses

II Timothy 2:15

Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (NKJV)

Thoughts

I was writing a devotional for Sportsmen's Devotionals when I misspelled a word in my text. I only misspelled it by one letter, but that one wrong letter created an entirely different word and completely changed the meaning of the whole message.

I thought about the scribes of old and how diligent they had to be to ensure that the Word of God was copied correctly. They went so far as to count the letters and spaces used when copying a new Bible to ensure that there was absolutely no error in the new script they were writing.

If changing one letter of one word can so completely alter the intent of the writer, can you imagine how important it is for us to have correct doctrine? No wonder the Bible tells us that we must study to show ourselves approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

Action Point

It is easy to let ourselves enjoy the warm fuzzies of the Christian life without doing the hard work of understanding scripture and doctrine. Men and women study!

Sportsmen's Tip of the Day

Okay! This is not an outdoor tip; nevertheless, it is important to me. Remember that when you use spell-check, it will not pick up words that are spelled correctly but used in the wrong context. You must proof-read!

Trivia Time!!

1. A lost ax head was made to float by _____.
2. What person in the Bible walked for forty days without eating?
3. Why did Absalom kill his brother Amnon?
4. Who paid for the nursing of Moses?
5. Who committed suicide with his own sword?
6. Who committed suicide by hanging himself?
7. What king pouted in his bed because he could not buy someone's vineyard?
8. King Solomon had another name. What was it?
9. Who was the man to build the first city and what was its name?
10. What woman in the Bible made a pair of kid gloves for her son?
11. A certain queen's blood was sprinkled on horses. Who was this queen?
12. Who was the first musician in the Bible? What did he play?

As Kenya nears its national elections, the St. Paul's University Women Fellowship gathered for a time of prayer and fasting. There has been a history of election violence in the past and there is a sense of urgency to come before the Lord in prayer. It was moving to meet together, hear scripture read, and pray together. The prayers were literally said together with everyone present praying their own prayers on the topics below OUT LOUD. What a beautiful cacophony of heartfelt pleading with God on behalf of our beautiful country of Kenya.

We covet your prayers as the elections take place on August 9 and in the weeks afterward. If you would like to pray specifically for this you can use the prayer items below which were used during our time of prayer at each of the four campuses.

You can also pray for our students as they await their exam results and senior. Pray also for the continuing students that will return to study in September. Thanks for your continued support of us and our ministry here at St Paul's and for those of you supporting the RCA-SPU scholarship fund for financially challenged students.

Grace and peace,
Jane and Rowland Van Es

From the library--

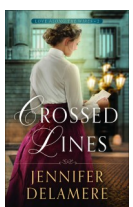

This month the library news will start out with two non-fiction books that are “gently used.” The first book is TOO BUSY NOT TO PRAY by Bill Hybels. “Most of us have trouble finding time to pray. There’s church and school and neighborhood and job and friends and recreation. And then the crises hit! Time for prayer seems impossible to find.”

The second book is FORWARD by Dr. David Jeremiah. “Your best days are not behind you! Now more than ever God is ready to use you, and your greatest moment could be only a step away. It doesn’t matter who you are or what your age or your current situation may be—God will strengthen you, fulfill you, and partner with you to see great things accomplished in your lifetime.”

The new fiction books are: STORING UP TROUBLE by Jen Turano is the third book in the “American Heiress” series. “After Miss Beatrix Waterbury suffers multiple mishaps due to her involvement with the suffrage movement, her mother decides a change is in order for her incorrigible daughter. Banished from New York, Beatrix is sent off for an extended stay with her Aunt Gladys in Chicago. Mr. Norman Nesbit, a gentleman and a brilliant man of science is devoted to his work, doesn’t have time to be distracted with members of the feminine set. When Beatrix’s life is put at stake after she takes employment as a salesgirl she and Norman find themselves propelled into each other’s company again and again. Check out STORING UP TROUBLE soon to find out what happens!!

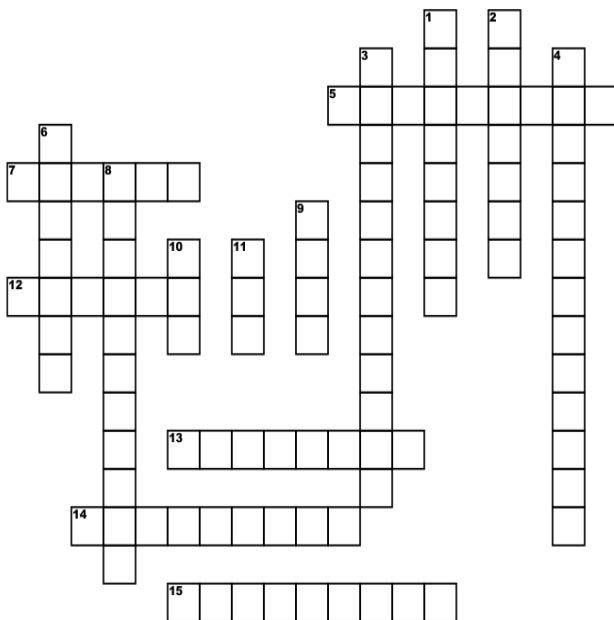

CROSSED LINES by Jennifer Delamere is book #2 of “Love Along the Wires.” Emma Sutton knows she should be satisfied with her life. She has a position at London’s Central Telegraph Office, and behind her rented rooms is a small plot where she can indulge her passion for gardening. Mitchell Harris’s sharp wit and facility with a pen have enabled him to thrive despite serious obstacles. That the women of his dreams works just two floors above his should make life perfect.”

A LARGE PRINT book is UNFAILING LOVE, “When Hope Calls #3” by Janette Oke and Laurel Oke Logan. Lillian Walsh and Grace Bennett have learned so much already about caring for children in distress. It hasn’t been easy, but it becomes even more difficult when they suddenly discover that three children have run away. Concerned for the trio’s safety, the sisters will do all they can to find the children. Check out the book to find out what the children do when they do not want to be found!

A Letter From Pastor Colas

Brothers and sister, I greet you all in the name of our Lord Jesus!

We have been busy this summer but we have run into some issues with our churches location and source of power from the electricity which has us looking and dreaming about finding a new location to build a new church. We know this is a big project but we also know God is bigger and that he can do miraculous things. As the church, we let you know that and we really want prayers for that. We spend a lot of time at our church and hope to have the opportunity to start fresh and new. On Tuesday we have prayer time with the church. Thursday, Bible study with the church and on Friday prayer time before our Sunday services. We continue praying for you church.

Thanks!
Colas Montrema,
Lead Pastor!
