

Dealing with Change

Change happens – constantly. But, thankfully, it's not too often that our entire lives are altered forever by external events.

You've had some of those turns, too.

The death of someone very close to you.

Divorce.

Loss of a job.

Failure of a business.

An illness or injury.

Suddenly, life is not the same and never will be again. Everything's different.

And we try to cope – sometimes in healthy ways, sometimes in self-destructive ways.

Life goes on. The props change, sometimes all too often. We're so tempted to cling to the props as they are being dragged off the set. And sometimes we're hurt because of our inability to let go, so attached to the trappings of the past that it's impossible for us to welcome the future.

Change requires courage, great helpings of it. My mind goes to Joshua in the Bible. For nearly forty years he had been an understudy to the great leader Moses. Now Moses is dead and leadership is thrust fully upon Joshua. Ahead is the Jordan River running at flood stage, and beyond that the fortified cities of Canaan – the "Promised Land" that seems so elusive. Talk about change? Joshua has change swirling all around him.

And God speaks to him a word: "Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified, do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9).

Do you cling to the old and risked being crushed by it? Or do you cling to God's promise to you?

God has promised to be with you wherever you go. He has promised never to leave you or forsake you. What he asks of you is faith to overcome your terror. Courage to meet your discouragement. And confidence to draw on his strength.

Change is a constant. No part of our lives will endure unchanged for more than a few years, a few decades at most. But the LORD our God is unchangeable. He is forever. You can put down your roots into him, knowing that in this way you will never be utterly uprooted again.

And if I could offer just one word of advice for them and for you – and for me – it would be this: Don't cling to the past.

Words from Pastor Luke

6 THINGS TO ADD TO YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

It's almost 2017! Time has really flown by. Since this is the time of year that everyone seems to think about starting over, or setting goals, let's look at a few really great goals you can add to your list of New Years Resolutions. I pulled these ideas off the internet for you to be challenged with.

Know God. This year, challenge yourself to make knowing God a priority. Really put some effort into knowing God. The best way to get to know God is by reading the Bible. Don't make excuses like the Bible is outdated, boring or hard to read. There are tons of versions of the Bible that can make reading it easier. You can listen to several versions of the Bible online at bible.com. You can also find a great podcast or check out some of our devotions on reading the Bible. Don't make excuses, spend time in the Bible by finding a way to read it that works for you. ^[SEP]“All I want is to know Christ and the power that raised him from death.” – Phil 3:10 a (ERV)

Open up. Life is really busy. It can be easy to get caught up in your group of friends and what is going on in their lives that you forget to pay attention to those around you. Your work and fun activities are filled with people that need Christ. All around you, there are tons of opportunities to love others. All you have to do is be open to being used by God. Ask God to show you people around you that are hungry for God. Invite them into your life. Hear what they have to say, and see how God would have you minister to their needs.

Invite someone to church or youth group. One of the easiest ways to lead someone to Christ is to ask them to church or youth group. You might feel a little silly doing it, but challenge yourself to step out of your comfort zone and ask someone in your life to church with you. Believe God that their heart will be touched, and that they will come to know Christ as a result. ^[SEP]You never know what your invitation might mean to the person. You don't know what something as simple as asking someone to church might do for someone else. You might be the only chance your friends have of hearing the gospel.

Read. No matter how lame it sounds, challenge yourself to read some personal growth books this year. You could pick up a book on leadership, or how to make lasting friendships. It doesn't really matter what the topic is about. Simply find a self-help topic that interests you and challenge yourself to grow as a person in the next year.

Grow. Its easy to get lazy in life. Most likely, you've gotten comfortable in your routine, in your friends and with your work. When things are going good, its pretty easy to slip into lazy mode. However, challenge yourself to not just stay where you're at right now. Challenge yourself to grow in the next year. Step out of your comfort zone and do something that you wouldn't normally do.^[1] You might decide to sign up for a missions trip. Maybe you decide to help clear out your neighbor's garage. Or perhaps it's talking to that person at lunch that always sits by himself at the back table. Whatever it is, challenge yourself to grow this year. Don't let the year slip away without doing something extraordinary.

Give. Don't let this year be a year that you forget to give. Push past selfishness and give more this year. Choose to hold off buying that idem you want, and give a little extra to help someone else out.^[1] Decide that on Sunday nights instead of hanging out at home go visit your grandma or someone elderly who can't get out and about anymore. Whatever makes sense to you, whether is giving time, money, or something else, choose to give more this year. No matter how much or how little you have, you can always find room to give something to someone else this year.^[1] "Give to others, and you will receive. You will be given much. It will be poured into your hands—more than you can hold. You will be given so much that it will spill into your lap. The way you give to others is the way God will give to you." – Luke 6:38 (ERV)

These are just a few suggestions on things to add to your new years goals. It is my prayer that in 2017 you will grow to higher levels in your relationship with Christ and those that are around you! I look forward to seeing what God will do within your life!

Pastor Luke

301. Elder/Deacon calling for 2017 was discussed.

302. Old Business: Heath De Jong gave a Director of Youth update. The Director of Youth Search Team has had several interviews with applicants for this position.

303. New Business: MMSC to allow the Cherish Center to do the Baby Bottle Campaign again this year. They will bring the baby bottles, leave them at church for the month of February 2017. This is one of our Benevolent Missions.

304. For Information: Approval of church use MMSC to allow Arnie and Diane Langstraat to use the Fellowship Hall and Kitchen on November 23, 2017.

305. Weather related issues were discussed. Doing a sermon in the dark was discussed.

306. Derek Heronimus gave the Treasurer's Report.

307. Pastor Luke thanked the retiring Consistory members and offered Prayer of Thanksgiving for their willingness to serve.

308. Pastor Luke explained the Ordination and Installation procedure to the new Elders and Deacons. Installation will be held on January 1, 2017.

309. Consistory will continue to meet on the 3rd Monday of each month.

310. MMSC to elect the following: Vice President of the Consistory: Marcus De Boer; Clerk: Stan Gaalswyk; Assistant Clerk: Heath De Jong.

311. MMSC to elect the following: General Fund Treasurer: Kevin Klaassen; Assistant General Fund Treasurer: Charlie Kuhl; Chairman of the Deacons: Dr. Brian Saylor.

312. Pastor Luke discussed with the Consistory the scripture Matthew 18: 15-17 "If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. 16 But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. 17 If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector. The Consistory has decided this is how they will handle issues that may come up in church.

313. MMSC to approve these minutes as read.

Consistory Meeting

December 19, 2016

Elders Meeting 6:00pm

8 present a quorum

292. Pastor Luke opened with prayer.

293. Approved in November: Michael and Chelsea Hulstein requested infant baptism for their daughter, Aubrey, on January 8, 2017.

294. FYI: Levi and Kira Christensen appeared before the Elders in October of 2016 to Profess their Faith in the Lord, Jesus Christ. They will have their Public Profession of Faith on February 26, 2017 along with Infant Baptism for their son, Connor.

295. The Constitutional question was asked, "Are there any members that need spiritual care this month." Elder and Deacon calling was discussed.

296. MMSC to approve Arnie and Diane Langstraat to use the Fellowship Hall and Kitchen on November 23, 2017 for a family gathering.

297. MMSC to approve the minutes as read.

298. MMSC to adjourn following prayer by Ron Dykstra.

Consistory Meeting 7:15 pm

12 present a quorum

299. Pastor Luke opened by reading Mark 10:43 and lead in devotions: Having the Heart of a Servant. Pastor Luke thanked those who are retiring from Consistory. He then opened with prayer.

300. Ministry Team Reports were given.

Outreach: MMSC to have an appreciation day in January at our church for our area fireman and policeman and EMS.

MMSC to contribute $500 for 2017 for the GEMS program at the Christian Reformed Church. Several of our girls go to that program.

Worship: The new piano is coming on Wednesday, December 21.

Property: Several Projects in process at the church and parsonage were reviewed.

Education: Christmas Program for Wednesday night was discussed. Additional teachers are needed for the Next year.

your classis or your regional synod are willing to help us reach this goal, which will help provide some financial stability for our family in the future.

THE PEACE OF GOD WHICH SURPASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING. If you have read past Dear Friends letters from us, or have visited our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/tenclay, you have heard about the Humanitarian Corridors Project in Italy. This project is a joint project with the Waldensian Church, The Federation of Evangelical Churches in Italy (FCEI), and the Catholic Community Sant'Egidio, and is a fast, safe and legal pathway of welcoming refugees (mostly Syrian and Iraqi) to Italy. The program opened in February 2006 and is set to meet its first goal of welcoming 500 refugees from Lebanon in 2016. The next phase of the program is to open two more corridors in Morocco and Ethiopia, and welcome 1,500 additional refugees among all three corridors in 2017, for a total of 2,000 refugees in two years. We are happy to announce that we have been chosen to host two Syrian families through this project, who will arrive in Palermo December 1, and will be hosted by our second ministry association, the Waldensian Diaconal Center - La Noce. I have been chosen by La Noce to be one of two leaders on this program and will be flying to Rome to greet our guests and accompany them to their new home in Palermo. The short, sleepless night I experienced last night is not only because we received this good news a week ago and are working diligently to refurbish one of the apartments to meet the needs of our guests, but also because I continue to ponder the sheer horror of war, particularly of the war in Syria. Please join us in praying that we can bring a small piece of the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, to these families as we welcome them to Palermo.

I want to end this letter by saying thank you to all of you for your support of our ministry. We love our work, but it is heavy work (particularly taxing on our emotions and our time). Your financial support sustains us economically, but your correspondence and prayers (through e-mail messages, cards, letters, social media, etc.) sustain us spiritually and emotionally, and for that we are grateful.

Wishing you a holiday season filled with hope, joy, love and peace.

Love,

JJ, Tim, Sophia and Petra TenClay, RCA Missionaries, Palermo (Sicily), Italy

JJ and Tim's ministry

Jennifer works in the region of Palermo, Italy, as a social action worker, developing partnerships with medical, mental health/substance abuse, governmental, and social service entities as well as ministries focused on meeting the physical, spiritual, and socioeconomic needs of the over 500,000 migrants in the area, most of whom are from Africa and the Middle East. Tim hosts visiting RCA groups and individuals, introducing and connecting them with Waldensian church members and leaders. He also interprets the Waldensian-related refugee resource ministries, Being Church Together, Pellegrino della Terra and Humanitarian Corridors. Learn more at www.rca.org/tenclay.

From JJ and Tim Ten Kley

Dear Friends,

“Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.” — Philippians 4:4-7 (NRSV)

I (JJ) woke up this morning with these words running through my mind after a short and fitful night of sleep. These verses hit on many themes that have been prominent in our lives in the past few days, and I’d like to share some of them with you.

REJOICE! After 20 years of service, the president of Pellegrino della Terra (one of the two ministry partner associations we work with here in Palermo) has decided to step down as president of the association, and Tim was elected as the new president. Vivian Wiwoloku, former president and founder of Pellegrino della Terra (PdT), has worked tirelessly for the past twenty years in the fight against the trafficking and sexual exploitation of women (primarily from Nigeria) in Palermo. As a point of reference, approximately 80% of women and girls who arrive in Italy from Nigeria will become victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation, and 1,658 Nigerian women/girls have arrived in Italy from January to October 2016 alone. Pellegrino della Terra’s primary goal is to help victims or ex-victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation to gain healthy independence and economic autonomy by providing supportive services in the following areas—spiritual support, psychological support, social services, job training, Italian language courses, maternal support (including free childcare during language courses), and legal support. PdT also has a listening center/help desk open five days a week in Palermo, to assist all migrants, refugees, and locals who ask for assistance, and is working on starting new services in Trapani, another port town in Sicily with a large population of migrants, refugees and asylum seekers. Vivian will continue as Director of PdT, which will allow him to focus his leadership on relationships within the community (both in Palermo/Trapani and in Nigeria) and starting new services in Trapani, while Tim will take over the more bureaucratic needs of the association.

PRAYER AND SUPPLICATION WITH THANKSGIVING. Tim has been accepted as the newest RCA missionary! Up until this point, I was appointed as an RCA missionary while Tim serves as minister of Word and sacrament for three Waldensian/Methodist churches in Sicily. Due to the additional work Tim is doing (now as President of PdT and his work with the Waldensian/Methodist Church’s Being Church Together program), and because he is not eligible for an Italian pension, we are currently working on raising another Partnership-in-Mission (PIM) share to cover this cost. Please consider if you, your church, your community,

Sportsmen's Devotional

Bible Study Verse: 1 Thessalonians 5:1

Now, brothers and sisters, about times and dates we do not need to write to you. (NIV)

Thoughts: A few weeks ago I was at the hitch rail outside our tack room trimming the feet on my daughter's horse. My wife and daughter were standing nearby inspecting one of our other horses when we heard a bunch of our chickens raise a commotion from within our horse corrals just out of view behind our feed shed.

All of a sudden a flock of chickens came running (for their lives apparently) toward us and right in the middle of them was a coyote! He caught a chicken not 20 feet from me and ran off as I yelled, "Coyote!" unnecessarily. It apparently scared the coyote into dropping the *chicken.

He ran away as I ran into our house for a small caliber rifle then ran outside again with my oldest daughter in chase to see him sitting in the desert about 80 yards away looking somewhat disappointed. I took a knee as he got up to run and I let him have it. He had his last chance at a meal, ever. SCORE: Chickens- 1, Coyotes- 0 (Ruben C)

Action Point: This little adventure happened at about 3 pm on a nice sunny day. Who would've thought? I always assumed the coyotes preferred to come in for their thievery at night, but lesson learned.

I have heard many people theorize on the end of the world and the coming of Christ. It hasn't happened yet! But, I'm sure it will, just as I'm sure I do not know when that day will be. The scriptures tell us to be awake and sober and wear our salvation as a helmet Read 1 Thessalonians 5. We need to be prepared in day and night for the coming of the Lord or possibly most likely us going to meet the Lord.

We may not have the advantage of knowing when that moment will be and we do not need to pack for the trip, but we need to be right with the Lord at all times as it's not a one-time situation, although it is a one-time promise, amen?

had a rifle prepared that day in case a coyote came calling at any time. Am I prepared for the Lord the same way? How about you?

Sportsmen's Tip of the Day: Calling and shooting coyotes is exciting fun for anyone to enjoy. In southern Arizona I have found the early mornings the best for using both rabbit distress calls and howlers. Electronics are also fun, but there's a certain satisfaction in fooling a dog with a mouth call! Either way, both are fun.

*no chickens were injured in the making of this adventure

My First Christmas in Heaven

See the countless Christmas trees around the world below. With tiny lights, like heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow. The sight is so spectacular! Please wipe away that tear, for I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear, but the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here. I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring, for it is beyond description to hear the angels sing.

I know how much you miss me. I see the pain inside your heart, but I am not so far away. We really aren't apart. So be happy for me dear ones. You know I hold you dear, and be glad I'm spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I send you each a special gift from my heavenly home above. I send you each a memory of my undying love. After all "LOVE" is the gift, more precious than pure gold. It was always most important in the stories Jesus told.

Please love and keep each other, as my Father said to do, for I can't count the blessing or love He has for you. So, have a joyous Christmas and wipe away that tear. Remember, I'm spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.
